The AESO is seeking comments from stakeholders on its approach to reviewing the pricing framework, and content from session 3.

| | Questions | Stakeholder Comments |
|----|--|---|
| 1. | The AESO has presented pricing framework options, and the risks and benefits of each, see below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A. Implement improvements to the pricing framework now to incent efficient market response during supply shortage and supply surplus situations B. Implement option A, in future, but delay due to conflicting priorities and external issues that exist today C. Maintain current pricing framework– AESO will continue to monitor the state of the market for signs of loss of system efficiencies Do you believe there other alternatives that should have been considered. If yes, please elaborate. | Greengate agrees with the alternatives presented by the AESO. Greengate strongly agrees with the AESO that maintaining the current pricing framework is the best approach with continued market monitoring, as required. |
| 2. | The AESO's draft recommended approach is Option C above, maintain the current pricing framework. Do you have comments related to this recommendation? | Greengate strongly supports this alternative since it will continue with the market structure that has been highly successful in Alberta. Greengate believes this decision will minimize concerns of proposed generation projects that market changes will cause uncertainty. Greengate supports creating a stable business environment to support new project development. |
| 3. | Do you feel you have been able to adequately participate and provide comments to the AESO through this engagement? If no, please describe your concerns. | The AESO has done well at listening to stakeholder comments and in putting together meaningful presentation and analysis. The use of the Zoom tool is successful and improving with each session. |
| 4. | Do you believe the AESO was effective in the preparation and presentation of the material? If no, please provide suggestions for the improvement of future engagements. | Yes, the AESO was effective in the presentation materials. The consultation sessions involved significant analysis and it was well presented. |
| 5. | Please provide any other comments you have related to the pricing framework engagement. | Thank you for the opportunity to participate. |
